

A black and white icon of a calendar page. The page is represented by a white rectangle with rounded corners, set against a black background. The word "Fri" is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font in the center of the page. The letter "F" is uppercase, while "ri" is lowercase. The "i" has a solid black dot above it. The top of the calendar page is framed by a thick black border, which includes two small, semi-circular tabs on the left and right sides, suggesting a calendar binding.
